Title: Protection Assistant (Community based)

Type of contract: UNOPS LICA 4

Location: Algeciras (Spain)

Duration: Until 31/12/2020. Subject to subsequent extensions

GENERAL BACKGROUND

Spain's strategic geographical position in Europe along with its long coastline and two land borders in Northern Africa places it as a key EU destination country on two main routes to Europe: the Western Mediterranean route from North Africa to Spain and the Western African route between Senegal, Mauritania and Morocco and the Spanish Canary Islands.

Some risk their lives crossing the Strait of Gibraltar, the Mediterranean Sea or the Atlantic Ocean in inflatable boats from Morocco or Algeria, others cross into the two autonomous cities of Melilla and Ceuta, either by climbing the high surrounding border fences, passing undetected through border crossing points or in small boats.

By 1 December 2019 more than 24,400 migrants and refugees had reached Spain in 2019 throughout the Southern Coast by sea, including Algeciras and the Strait of Gibraltar areas. The top nationalities of sea arrivals are Morocco (30%), Algeria (15%), Guinea (14%), Mali (13%), and Côte d'Ivoire (10%). Men comprised approximately 76% of all arrivals, while women and children amounted to 12% each. With regards to arrivals to the autonomous city of Ceuta, approximately 1,830 arrivals were recorded in 2019 as of 01 December 2019, mainly from nationals of Algeria (45%), Morocco (26%) and Guinea (20%). Adult men comprised 88% of all arrivals, and women and children comprised 10% and 2% respectively.
